 - Boots (water proof)
 - Camo gloves
 - Camo mask or face cover
 - Camo hat
 - Camo stocking hat
 - Insulated underwear, a couple different weights might be useful
 - Underwear
 - Camp clothing (pants, shirt, jacket, socks,) keep separate from your hunting clothes
 - Slippers or tennis shoes for around camp
 - Flash Light &/or a headlamp and extra batteries
 - Shaving kit-if you must- with personal items (scent free is best)
 - Sleeping bag (good to 0 degrees F) If don't have one, let us know
 - Pillow—we do keep some at camp for your use
 - Towel and washcloth (we do have a portable shower)
 - Odd and ends: Binoculars, knife, a small (camo) backpack with camel back or a day pack & 2 qt. water container/canteen to carry supplies while you hunt, camera, handkerchiefs, chap stick, sunglasses, lighter, personal medications, hand cream, zip lock bags to keep things dry afield.
- * Wash all your hunting clothes in a scent free, UV free wash (available at your local sporting goods store) keep them separate from your camp clothes in either a "Scentlock" bag or trash bag
- * Always, think in layers of clothing. It could be quite warm during this season. As well, we can have snow one moment then be hot the next. And conditions will vary between camp and higher country where you hunt.
- * Pack items in one duffel bag (and waterproof); separate your sleeping bag if needed.
- * Meat processing and taxidermy costs are your responsibility
- * Gratuity is not included but always appreciated for a job well done.
